

FOOTBALL NOTES.

The city fifteen, although they won the match by what appears fair margin of two goals to nothing on Saturday, found the Cardiff Harlequins no mean opponents, and from the moment kicked off to the finish the homesters had to strain every nerve to prevent their opponents getting over. The match provided a first class exposition of the game ; it was a series of bright and interesting passages amidst which a marvellous run by Taylor—generally admitted to have been the best seen—stands out as the most prominent feature.

THE GLOUCESTER CAPTAIN
