

GLOUCESTER JOURNAL

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1889.

The Week's Sport.

The annual colts' match with which the season proper of the Gloucester F. C. opens, was played at the Spa on Saturday, and was a tame affair, the premier XV defeating the XX colts by six goals and four tries to nil.

The tries were scored by W. George (4), R. C. Jenkins, A. H. Brown, Cromwell, Ball, and Tandy; Hughes kicking all the goals with the exception of one, which was the result of a "flying" kick by C. E. Brown.