

THE CITIZEN

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1923.

GLOUCESTER LOSE TO PLYMOUTH ALBION.

In the second match of their tour Gloucester were again beaten, Plymouth Albion proving victorious by 2 tries (6 pts.) to nil. It was a fast, hard game, and the Albion scored once in each half.

Sanders, the English International forward, had the misfortune to fracture a collar bone when going down in a hard tackle.

This afternoon the City appear at Sidmouth.

JC