NOTES AND TOPICS

The most fastidious as well as the most optimistic Cardiff Rugby supporters had cause for a real outburst of enthusiasm at the result of last Saturday's game with Newport. The spate of tries; the avalanche of goals (Nine in all, Maldwyn James claiming five) the good spirit and open nature of the game; the brilliance of the Cardiff backs and the improved display of the pack and, finally, a win for the Blue and Blacks by the cricket score of 28 points to 17—these were the high-lights in a remarkably thrilling game that made it one to be long remembered, as we hoped in our notes last week. We can say "Thank you" to the thirty players who made the first post-war game between these great sides one worthy of a prominent place in their much cherished records.

Last Saturday's kudos wasn't the monopoly of Cardiff's Senior side as their reserve string, Cardiff Athletic, won their away game with Newport United so bringing off a notable double. It is pleasing to note that the Cardiff Committee have again decided to run an "Athletic" side so giving young promising players an opportunity to train on for promotion to the Senior's ranks as occasion demands. And it is likely that the club's resources will be taxed if very many Cardiff players find their way into the Welsh XV in the many International fixtures to be played this season—probably eight in all—some of which will interfere with quite a few important Club games. That's a pity, much as people enjoy the thrills of these representative games.

The Cardiff and District Rugby Union are carrying on minus its outstanding personality, Mr. Bob John, whose death some while ago was lamented by a huge following of rugbyites including thousands among the Junior Rugby Clubs of Cardiff who came under his paternal care and whose interests were so near to his heart. Bob's successor is Mr. Con Ll. Lewis, of
