OUR VISITORS

This afternoon we give a cordial welcome to our first visitors this season from Wales – the formidable Neath side.

The famous Welsh “All Blacks” are enjoying a successful season, with 14 victories and 278 points already to their credit. With Gloucester weakened through injuries, the lads will have to pull something special out of the bag to maintain their unbeaten record at Kingsholm.

Although the selections for the first England Rugby Trial, being held at Weston-super-Mare today, brought us several disappointments – we all send our best wishes to Don Rutherford on his selection at full-back, and hope he plays a “blinder” We also add our congratulations to Dick Smith on his belated inclusion in the team.

We trust that Peter Ford, and perhaps others, may find a place in the next Trial.

Best wishes, too, to our skipper, Mickie Booth, on a speedy recovery from his leg injuries. We know how galling it is for Mickie to be standing helplessly on the touch line, as it were, when he is rarin’ to go out in the middle !
