CARDIFF v. GLOUCESTER

We welcome Gloucester to the Arms Park this evening and having visited the English strongholds of Bristol and Coventry during the past week it would complete a notable trio of victories if we could overcome our visitors this evening. At the time of these notes going to press their team is not known, but the Cardiff side again shows changes from the team which won so handsomely at Coventry on Saturday. Fortunate indeed is the lot of the Selectors who are able to make so many changes in the team and yet retain the overall strength. There is an impressive array of talent in the Club at the present time and it is good to see that the Selectors have the courage to seize the opportunity during the month of September, of ringing the changes whenever possible. There is nothing more encouraging than this for an aspiring challenger in any position, to know that his claims are being recognised and that he has the chance to prove his worth. Keen competition is the spur for keeping all players, however long established, on their toes!

Today's changes see Gareth Edwards coming in for Billy Hullin whilst in the pack former Bridgend hooker replaces Gary Davies; John Harding has been playing well for the Athletic team and replaces Ray Morgan; the former Pontypridd forward Maurice Braithwaite plays in the second row instead of John Davies. The Gloucester team will probably have Don Rutherford at full-back and under his coaching the side is reputed to be vastly improved. Thus the stage is set for a keen encounter this evening.

As explained in the previous programme notes a series of articles entitled "Know the Laws" is being introduced in the programme and we trust that spectators will find them both interesting and informative. The second of them appears in this evening's programme.

KNOW THE LAWS 2.

BACK ROW FORWARDS AT A SCRUMMAGE: Q. Why are they frequently penalised when they break and still keep behind the ball?

Ans. When they break from a set Scrum they are deemed Offside and will be penalised accordingly if they do not immediately retire behind the scrummage Offside Line, i.e. a line through the hindmost foot of the players of his own team.

It is only when they have first retired that they can then go forward in the normal manner.

In All such cases the Advantage Law can apply.
