SPORTS CHRONICLE

EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT

THE CHERRY WHITES

Our friends from Gloucester are as usual having a good season. We welcome them to-day knowing full well that a hard game can be expected. Last Saturday at Kingsholm they recorded another fine victory against Pontypool.

OURSELVES

After a fine run of 11 games without defeat the 1st XV have lost against United Services, Bridgend and London Scottish. It is certain that skipper Tom Martland will be asking for that little extra to-day in order to ensure that they return to their winning ways.

Bath Record to date

P.	W.	D.	L.	for	against
20	12	1	7	255	227

Congratulations to Bob Orledge who has been selected to play in the England Trial next Saturday at Falmouth.

David Gay and Ian Duckworth are probably disappointed. There are however two more Trials and they may yet be recognised. It has been said that Tom Martland could also be in line for higher honours.

The man in the middle

The referee to-day is Mr. Frank Lovis although he has travelled from Leicester he is a member of the London Society of Referees.

He is graded as one of the top four referees in the country.

Distinguished Guests

We are honoured and delighted to welcome the Mayor of Bath Alderman Roy Hiscocks this afternoon. During his term of office he has taken a keen interest in many sporting activities in Bath. He will be interested to know that there are three Oldfield Old Boys in our XV to-day.

Programme Prizes can be collected from the North Stand Committee Room after half-time.

Have you parked your car sensibly.

Wednesday next in the Clubhouse, December 18th—Members' Christmas Draw 7 p.m.
