A WASPS XV v. KATS CLUB VANCOUVER— Kick-off 3 p.m.

Club Notes and News

As always we are delighted to see Gloucester here today, without doubt one of the greatest West Country Clubs, their record this season is most impressive with 21 victories, 5 draws and 12 defeats, they have scored 596 points against 394 points, and are obviously prepared to throw the ball about and enjoy their rugby. Ricky Parsons makes a welcome return to Full back today and Mike Field is in his customary place in the 2nd row, last weeks performance against Bradford was to put it mildly uninspired, let us hope for better things today, the weather at least appears to have improved which should make the game far more interesting.

Please make a special note of the following alterations and additions to our end of season fixtures.

Easter Monday, April 7th— A Wasps XV v. Kats Club, Vancouver at Sudbury, K.O. 3 p.m.

Friday, April 11th — Wasps v. London Welsh at Sudbury, K.O. 6 p.m.

Sunday, April 13th — Berkshire 7's at Windsor, K.O. 1 p.m.
