

THE WELFARE GROUND, NEWBRIDGE

A GRAND RUGBY MATCH

Newbridge

versus

Gloucester

Wednesday, September 24th, 1980

Kick-off 5.30 p.m.

We welcome our visitors from across the Severn Bridge, Gloucester, to the Welfare Ground this evening. Last Wednesday on a visit to Ebbw Vale they won by 18 - 10 with ace kicker Peter Butler in fine form, so we are under no illusion about the task confronting us tonight.

Last year at Gloucester Paul Turner kicked two penalties and a drop goal to score all our points in a 9 - 9 draw, and on their last visit here in April 1979 we were victorious by 19 - 4 with tries from Jeff Harris (2) and Gary Hewlett and two conversions by Justin Robinson and a penalty by Tony Browning.

Congratulations to the team on their fine performance last Friday winning at Aberavon by 10 points to 7, all our points being scored by Tony Browning.

Mike Grey, Paul Evans, Lloyd Davies, Chris Phillips and Bob Lowe helped Monmouthshire gain one of their finest victories for many years when they defeated Somerset at Weston by 23 - 10.

MINI RUGBY NOTES

We are pleased to announce that we have had an early season success, winning the Tredegar Ironside Shield for the third successive year in the under 11s group.

The team keeping their best performance for the final beating Saunders Ath. 22 - 0.

Last Sunday our four sides had a clean sweep against Caldicot, accumulating 136 points, without our line being crossed.
