

GLOUCESTER JOURNAL

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1897

FOOTBALL

At Bristol, on Saturday, Gloucestershire were engaged on their second championship match, their opponents being Devon. A fast and interesting game was witnessed, victory resting with Devon by 2 goals, 1 try (13 points) to 1 goal (5 points).

The winners were the smarter combination all round, their forwards especially playing a fine game in the second half. Mudway (Cinderford) scored for Gloucestershire, and Percy Stout goaled.

JC