

GLOUCESTER JOURNAL

SATURDAY, JANUARY 8, 1898

FOOTBALL

Last Saturday the Gloucester XV. paid a visit to Devonport Albion, and despite many fears to the contrary, emerged from the contest with their record still unbroken.

The game was fiercely contested, but neither side succeeded in scoring a tangible point. The muddy state of the ground was against perfect football, but it was alike for both sides, and under more favourable conditions it is hard to believe the verdict would have been other than it was.

JC