

THE CITIZEN

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1961

INJURED HAND KEEPS HILLIER OUT OF GLO'STER TEAM

Gloucester's regular full-back, Russell Hillier, will not play in the match at Kingsholm tomorrow night against Stroud – his old club – because of an injury to his hand. His place is taken by United full-back, P. Hawker.

The only other change from the Gloucester team which beat Bristol is the inclusion of Bob Timms on the left wing, He replaces Osman.

The kick-off is time for 6 p.m.

Team: P. Hawker; P. Meadows, A. Holder, J. Bayliss, R. Timms; T. Hopson, M. Booth; A. Townsend, M. Nicholls, T. Ricketts, R. Long, A. Brinn, P. Ford, J. Davis, D. Smith.
Res.: E. Stevens, K. Wilson, T. Bowkett.

JC