MACE AT SCRUM HALF FOR GLOUCESTER

GILBERT-SMITH AT WING FORWARD

Gary Mace plays at scrum-half for the first time this season in the premier side when Gloucester, depleted by County calls, meet Old Blues at Kingsholm (kick-off 2.45) on Saturday.

Led by Alan Holder the side includes David Gilbert-Smith, the Scottish international who serves with the S.A.S. at Hereford. He is wing forward in place of Peter Ford who is on county duty at Camborne.

Other replacements for the eight Gloucester players travelling to Cornwall are Reg Chamberlayne, hooker, in place of Mike Nicholls, and Jack Fowke in place of Alan Townsend.

Tug Wilson partners Alan Brinn in the second row. Wilson replaces Roy Long.

Stan Ingram replaces Russell Hillier at full-back and Eric Stephens, John Bayliss in the centre.

Bob Hannaford comes in on the wing in place of Peter Meadows.

Team: S. Ingram; R. Timms, E. Stephens, A. Holder, R. Hannaford; T. Hopson, G. Mace; T. Ricketts, R. Chamberlayne, J. Fowke, A. Brinn, K. Wilson, D. Gilbert-Smith, T. Davies, D. Smith.

Reserve: H. Symonds.
