CHAMBERLAYNE AND "TUG" WILSON KEEP PLACES

GLOUCESTER'S XV TO MEET OXFORD UNIVERSITY

Forwards Reg. Chamberlayne and Tug Wilson retain their places for the premier side's battle against Oxford University at Kingsholm on Saturday (kick-off 2.45p.m.).

Hooker Chamberlayne and second row forward Wilson both thoroughly justified their selection in last week's massacre of Old Blues.

Full-back Stan Ingram also retains his position; but this is because Russell Hillier will be away on business when Gloucester take the field.

Mick Booth, scrum-half, John Bayliss and Peter Meadows and skipper Alan Townsend all return from County duties.

And the reserves look like regular first team selections, including Tony Davies, Gary Mace, Ken Taylor, Fred Smith, Tony Osman and Colin James.

The team is:

S. Ingram; P. Meadows, J. Bayliss, A. Holder, R. Timms; T. Hopson, M. Booth; A. Townsend (capt.), R. Chamberlayne, J. Ricketts, R. Long, K. Wilson, P. Ford, D. Owen, D. Smith.

Reserves: T. Davies, G. Mace, K. Taylor, F. Smith, T. Osman, C. James.

UNITED PLAY JIM KING

Welcome back to Jim King, Gloucester's wing three-quarter, who suffered an injury early in the season which put him in hospital and out of the game for most of the season, so far.

United travel to Cwmbran, leaving Kingsholm by coach at 12.30 prompt, and take with them Scottish international David Gilbert-Smith and county forward Hal Symonds among a strong team.

Mike Nicholls, demoted from the premier side, hooks, supported by Jack Fowke, who played well for the premier side last week but has not been re-selected.

Gloucester United: P. Hawker; R. Hannaford, E. Stephens, T. Bowkett, J. King; P. Hole, J. Spalding; J. Herbert (capt.), M. Nicholls, J. Fowke, A. Brinn, B. Hudson, H. Symonds, D. Gilbert-Smith, P. Lane.
Reserves: T. Sparey, M. Maybury, J. Lowe, R. Crawford.
