HILLIER FIT AGAIN, PLAYS FOR UNITED

GLOUCESTER MAKE TWO CHANGES FOR MATCH AT NEWBRIDGE

Gloucester's full-back, Russell Hillier, is fit again following a shoulder injury several weeks ago, but will turn out for United, who meet Stratford-upon-Avon at Kingsholm on Saturday (kick-off 2.30).

Gloucester's premier side travel to Newbridge. There are two changes from the team which beat Coventry last week.

David Gilbert-Smith, who played at wing-forward, is not available and his place is taken by Hal Symonds who played in the middle of the back row last week. Tony Davies returns to fill the gap.

Stan Ingram returns to the full-back berth in place of Peter Hawker.

The team:

S. Ingram; T. Osman, A. Holder, D. Smith, P. Meadows; T. Hopson, M. Booth; A. Townsend (capt.), K. Taylor, J. Fowke, A. Brinn, B. Hudson, P. Ford, T. Davies, H. Symonds. Res. (to travel): C. James, R. Chamberlayne. Coach 11.45, ground.

Gloucester United: R. Hillier; J. King, T. Bowkett, E. Stephens, R. Timms; J. Lowe, J. Spalding; J. Herbert (capt.), M. Nicholls, T. Ricketts, R. Long, D. Owen, F. Smith, L. King, P. Lane. Res.: P. Hawker, H. Redrobe, T. Sparey, B. Crawford.
