RICH'S FLY-HALF PLAYS AGAINST GLOUCESTER

IN CHELTENHAM TEAM FOR KINGSHOLM CLASH

Gloucester meet Cheltenham at Kingsholm tomorrow night for the "other half" of the local derby which started last October with an 18pts.-6 win away by Gloucester.

The Gloucester selectors have retained the team which beat Cardiff at Kingsholm on Saturday and indicate, at this stage, the only change for the away game with Pontypool next Saturday will be at scrum-half. Then John Spalding will be called in for Mick Booth.

Much interest will be centred around 18-year-old Brian Smith, the Sir Thomas Rich's, Gloucester, schoolboy who plays at fly-half for Cheltenham. He made a promising debut in senior football in Cheltenham's game against Newbridge last week.
