TAYLOR TO HOOK FOR GLO'STER AT LYDNEY

BAYLISS RETURNS FOR HEADINGLEY MATCH

Gloucester's hooker, Ken Taylor, who did not appear in the Pontypool game because of injury, returns to the side for the Lydney encounter away tomorrow night.

Apart from this, there is no change in the side, which is:

R. Hillier; R. Timms, J. Lowe, A. Holder, P. Meadows; T. Hopson, J. Spalding; A. Townsend, K. Taylor, J. Herbert, R. Long, B. Hudson, P. Ford, T. Davis, P. Lane.

Res. J. Bayliss, M. Nicholls, E. Stephens.

Cars meet at the ground at 5.15 p.m.

For the first of the holiday games county centre, 18-year-old John Bayliss returns to the side in place of Alan Holder, and Mick Booth takes up the cudgels at scrum-half instead of John Spalding. The match, against Headingley, will start at Kingsholm at 3.15.

There will be several pack changes for the Easter Monday match against Birkenhead Park (3.15), but the back division remains as selected for Saturday's game.

Mike Nicholls returns to hook and will be supported by skipper Alan Townsend and Jack Fowke instead of John Herbert. Dave Owen replaces Brian Hudson in the second row.

Next Saturday week the Cherry and Whites start their end-of-season tour with a match against Devonport Services. [The] final encounter of the season will be with Teignmouth on April 30.
