

THE CITIZEN

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1962

GLO'STER DEPLETED FOR BATH MATCH

Gloucester field a depleted team against Bath at Kingsholm on Saturday (kick-off 2.30) because of heavy County commitments.

Jeremy Taylor, selected for the wing last week, appears in the centre in place of John Bayliss, who will travel for the match against Cornwall. And Barry Jackson, the United winger, comes in for County reserve Peter Meadows.

GARRY WHITE BACK

In the pack, Garry White returns after his splendid performance at wing forward against Old Blues and Mike Nicholls hooks in place of Mike Wetson, the ex-Cambridge hooker, who is a County travelling reserve.

Team: A. Holder; A. Osman, R. Pitt, J. Taylor, B. Jackson; T. Hopson, M. Booth (capt.); J. Fowke, M. Nicholls, A. Townsend, A. Brinn, R. Long, G. White, D. Owen, D. Gilbert-Smith.

The Bath line-up will be as follows:

J. Hawgood; I. Laurie, B. O'Mara, A. Endall, J. Edwards; R. Winthrope, J. Darling; J. Lacey, C. Owens, C. Evans, P. Venn, A. Meek, D. Anderson, W. Marks, P. Hall.

TEST FOR UNITED

Bath field a strong United side to entertain Gloucester United. Their side boasts no fewer than nine County players – past and present – as well as international Laurie Rimmer.

Gloucester United (coach 12.45): R. Hillier; R. Hannaford, M. Owen, J. Lowe, R. Timms; E. Stephens, G. Mace; I. Oakes, J. Taylor, J. Herbert, A. Davis, G. Stone, M. Maybury, J. Mace, P. Hawker (capt.).

Bath United: M. Rees; L. Jones, M. Elliott, S. Thomas, I. Donovan; R. Ford, G. Drewett; J. Hawkins, B. Davis, P. Parfitt, J. Parsons, A. Jacob, G. Leyshon, J. Evans, L. Limmer.

JC