

THE CITIZEN

THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 1963

DECISION ON GLO'STER GAME TOMORROW

Wasps' pitch at Sudbury, where Gloucester are due to play on Saturday, was covered by frozen snow to a depth of four to five inches today.

Nevil Compton, Wasps' team secretary, said today: "I cannot see any hope at all of the match being played, but a formal decision will be left until tomorrow."

RU STATEMENT ON CARDIFF INTERNATIONAL

Mr. R. E. Prescott, secretary of the Rugby Football Union, today issued the following statement: "With the information available, the Rugby Football Union have reasonable confidence that the Wales v. England game will be played on Saturday."

JC