

THE CITIZEN

TUESDAY, MARCH 26, 1963

NEWCOMERS IN STROUD XV FOR KINGSHOLM MATCH

With second-row forward Peter Marriott unfit to play and centre Brian Pollard nursing a fractured collarbone, Stroud bring Mike Smith into the pack and Sean Moore into the three-quarters for the first time this season for their game against Gloucester at Kingsholm on Thursday (leaving Cheapside 4 p.m.).

When the two teams met at Fromehall Park in September, Stroud, then at full strength, won a well-fought game by nine points to six.

Their selected team is:

I. W. Sheen; W. Workman, S. Moore, G. Phillips, J. Hogg; M. Hughes, R. Simmonds (capt.); M. Tilden, S. Moore, C. Whittaker, D. Auchterlonie, M. Smith, A. Murphy, D. Pegler, J. Alford.
Reserves: D. Wedel, G. O'Connell.

With the exception of Dave Pegler as wing-forward in the place of Arthur Murphy, who will be travelling as reserve with the County team, Stroud will field the same side in their away game with Middlesex Hospital (8.40 a.m. train) on Saturday.

Home to Keynsham (3.15), Stroud Nomads will field the following team on Saturday:

B. Chamberlain; R. Hancock, G. O'Connell, C. G. Woodruff, R. Bassett; I. Artus, M. Thomas; K. Davies (capt.), P. Keith-Roach, P. Marshall, P. Wilkins, D. Wedel, R. Harris, G. Shipton, K. Cooper.
Reserves: K. Shill, G. Jones, R. Sutton, R. Bromwell, E. Cox.

The Stroud Extras XV to visit Coney Hill is to be selected later.

JC