

THE CITIZEN

TUESDAY, MARCH 26, 1963

GLOUCESTER PLAY AT TWICKENHAM

Harlequins, who should have been visiting Gloucester on Saturday, will play the fixture at Twickenham (3 p.m.) because of the Rugby Union county championship semi-final between Gloucestershire and Warwickshire which is being played at Kingsholm.

The 'Quins will be without their captain Colin Payne, who is replaced by John Adcock, with Williams leading the side for the first time.

Team: A. Prosser-Harries; H. Eden, J. J. McPartlin, R. H. Lloyd, B. Bennett; R. M. Bartlett, J. W. Williams (captain); D. F. B. Wrench, J. Bazalgette, G. C. Murray, J. R. L. Adcock, R. B. Marson, A. J. Todman, V. R. Marriott, N. Silk.