NOTES

We have out to-day what may be generally considered to be our strongest team and the reserves chosen, with the exception of G. Carpenter, have played frequently in the first XV. Carpenter (son of "Bumps") is attracting favourable notice as a hooker.

Our opponents are going strongly again this season beating Newport last week by 29-0. With their present reputation this may be looked upon as the match of the season, and we wish our team the best of luck in their formidable task.

Patrons will note the increase in price of these programmes as from to-day. The Trustees of the Gloucester Rugby Memorial Fund, to which fund the proceeds of the sale of these programmes goes, trust that all will concur in this decision in order to give more support to the fund. The cost of production is very much more than in pre-war days (when a charge of 2d. was also made) and the amount received each week is now approximately halved by the expenses. The whole of the extra charge will benefit the fund and will help in some measure to bring the season's effort up to that of last year's, when the County Union kindly gave the nett proceeds from the programmes at the Semi-Final and Final matches.

Get your Programme every 1st XV match and help the Gloucester Rugby Memorial Fund.
