AFTER THE MATCH . . .

Why not call at the SAL.
for a Drink and a friendly discussion of the game ?

We extend a warm welcome, to Stradey this evening, to our old rivals Gloucester, whose sporting co-operation enabled Stradey fans to watch this afternoon's International match on their T.V. screens.
The Cestrians have shown this season that they are quite a formidable team and Llanelly will have to play their best brand of rugby if they are to win.
For this game Llanelly field one of their strongest teams and particular interest will be focussed on R. H. Williams and Keith Rowlands, both of whom are in the running for the vacant second-row position in the Welsh XV, to meet France next Saturday.
Included in Llanelly team are two players, R. H. Williams and D. O. Brace, who have captained Wales this season.
