GLOUCESTER

Captain : P. FORD

It is our great pleasure this afternoon to extend a sincere welcome to our old rivals from Gloucester and we again look forward to another grand game, a feature which has been associated with this fixture for many years.

Whilst they cannot now boast many great names in the present side, they can be relied upon to play with the usual West Country fervour and the Whites will be hard pressed to maintain the improvement shown in recent games.

One of their greatest players, Mr. A. T. Voyce, has this year been honoured with the presidency of the Rugby Union and some of our old players will easily recall tremendous tussles with Gloucester sides which included this great forward.

The Whites brought off a creditable win under the Stradey lights on Monday and a feature of this game was the continued progress made by our young inside half, Eiryn Lewis. The pack also gave a good account of themselves and this augurs well for the immediate future which contains some really stiff obstacles.
