v GLOUCESTER
3/2/62

BRISTOL FOOTBALL CLUB

SEASON 1961-62

Last September, at Gloucester, we were defeated 15 pts. to 3. The result was the cause of justifiable jubilation at Kingsholm as it was the first time for four years our old friends and rivals had escaped defeat by Bristol. The Cestrians have experienced an uneven season—some good performances being interspersed by surprising falls from grace. In the last two weeks, however, they must have been in top form as they vanquished Wasps 19—0 and the Army 16—8—achievements which suggest Bristol are due for a tough tussle. Although Glo'shire and Somerset have no further interest in this year's Championship, some of our players are still involved, Jim Glover and Dave Mann being in the Cornish ranks at Coventry to-day.

Bristol Schools' Rugby Union are very grateful to our spectators for the money contributed last week.

First XV's next home match: 24th February, v. Swansea. Kick-off 3.15 p.m.

TODAY'S PROGRAMME PRIZE

The first Programme Prize this week is £5, and the second is a bottle of Sherry, kindly presented by Grant's of St. James, Ltd., the well-known Wine Merchants.

Last week's winners were: £5 to Mr. B. J. Watts, 81 Lower Redland Road, Bristol, and Card Table to Mr. J. Montgomery, 28 Church Road, Stoke Bishop.
