OUR VISITORS

We tender a cordial, if speculative, welcome to Newbridge, our visitors to Kingsholm this afternoon.

Speculative inasmuch as many of our supporters have rarely seen them in action. In recent years, however, Newbridge have climbed steadily to the top and can now justly claim a place among the leading Welsh clubs.

Despite their strong fixture list they have had a very successful season, with 20 victories, 2 drawn games and 11 defeats, scoring 256 points against 223, so we can look forward to an exciting struggle this afternoon.

May we remind supporters that next Wednesday evening Gloucester meet Bath at Kingsholm (kick-off 6-30) in a rearranged fixture, the previous game last December having to be postponed because of County commitments.

Other diary dates at Kingsholm: Next Monday, April 20th—Semi-Finals and Final of the North Glos. Combination Seven-a-Side Tournament; Monday, April 27th—Final of the N.G.C. Junior Cup; Tuesday, April 28th—Final of the N.G.C. Senior Cup (Tredworth v. Matson). All these are evening matches, kicking off at 6-30 p.m.)
