Welcome GLOUCESTER

IT is always a pleasure to entertain English visitors to Pontypool, and this afternoon we convey a special and friendly welcome to the Gloucester XV and their supporters to Pontypool Park. Having the home advantage early in the season 14 points to nil, our rivals will endeavour to procure the double never-the-less, it is certain that the English reputation for open entertaining rugby will not be in dispute with this project in view.

SUPPORTERS have registered their acute chagrin at the postponement of the Newport game due to weather conditions. This can be expected, because the enthusiasm and excitement that had been building up around this game had not been experienced for many years. Many fans are convinced of the result and if played at a later date will need a kiss of life to revive the same atmosphere. We hope our Team's confidence will remain and that the result of this afternoon's game will compensate for our expectations of Wednesday last.

Hospital Broadcast Fund The collection in respect of the above made last Saturday realised £18-3-0 Thank you.

R. Cooper, Hon. Sec.
