Newbridge v Gloucester R. F. C.

For the second week in succession our opposition is from the West Country and today we extend a welcome to Gloucester. Having a quite successful season Gloucester will try to emulate their neighbours Cheltenham and beat us on our home ground. With county calls having preference we have perhaps not seen the best of Gloucester in the past, as they have always provided a strong contingent to the County side. We hope that there are no clashes of fixtures today to take away their stars.

Newbridge are an enigma this season. After a disastrous start, a surge of superlative rugby with some fine wins led us to believe better was to come. Alas Abertillery and Cheltenham brought us to earth with a bump. It is a long time since this team played badly, and we hope this lapse will not be repeated. Injuries are a worry, but with promising youngsters in the seconds and youth team it is hoped this worry can be alleviated.
