

GLOUCESTERSHIRE ECHO

TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 1936

GLOUCESTER BEAT STROUD

Gloucester beat Stroud at Stroud last night by 11 pts. to 5.

Gloucester were faster behind the scrums in the first half.

Hook, on the left wing, showed specially good form, and after 10 minutes he rounded off good passing with a try. He followed with another after a 50-yards' run, Parker converting.

James, at full back for Stroud, was their outstanding player.

Stroud improved in the second half, and Phillips scored a try, Endacott converting.

Just before the end James score again for Gloucester.