

THE CITIZEN

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1963

GLO'STER KEEP TO FIFTEEN WHICH BEAT LYDNEY

MIDWEEK GAME TEAM AGAINST CHELTENHAM

The Gloucester team which beat Lydney so soundly at Kingsholm on Saturday is retained for the match at Cheltenham tomorrow night, but the home team make no fewer than five changes after their last-minute defeat by Stroud.

Hooker, Nigel Halls' pulled muscle injury suffered in Gloucester's game at Stroud is still giving him trouble and Mike Nicholls, who took his place on Saturday, remains in the team.

In the Cheltenham side full-back J. Crouch displaces Griffiths and J. C. Jones comes in for Bassett on the wing. Front row changes include A. T. Davies and D. Cooke – in for dropped Protherough, the Cheltenham vice-captain, and Tapsell, Former Colts player B. Capaldi plays his debut at wing forward.

Cheltenham: J. Crouch; J. C. Jones, D. Brookes, B. Williams, N. Foyce; M. Roberts, M. J. Davies (capt.); A. T. Davies, D. Cooke, J. Newman, C. Wiggins, G. Farr, B. Capaldi, B. Lee, J. Holmes.

Gloucester: A. Holder (capt.); R. Smith, J. Bayliss, J. Taylor, A. Osman; T. Hopson, M. Booth; J. Fowke, M. Nicholls, A. Townsend, B. Hudson, A. Brinn, P. Ford, G. White, B. Smith.

Reserves: G. Mace, P. Meadows, G. Price and J. Herbert.

Cars at Kingsholm 5 p.m. for a 6.15 kick-off.