

THE CITIZEN

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1963

BAYLISS, MEADOWS BACK AGAIN AS LEFT WING PAIRING

With a defeat to avenge, Gloucester will be going all out to strike last season's anti-Newport form when they meet the Welsh club at Kingsholm for a 3.15 kick-off on Saturday. They put the double on Newport last season, and lost only in the last minute at Newport earlier this season. Gloucester selectors have dropped three of the team which last Saturday lost to the Harlequins at Twickenham.

Terry Osman and Ron Pitt concede their places to Peter Meadows – who traditionally plays blinders against Newport – and John Bayliss, fit again after a post injury trial run in the United last week.

Roy Fowke is reserve and Alan Townsend returns to the front row. Osman is also reserved for this match.

Team: A. Holder (capt.); R. Smith, J. Taylor, J. Bayliss, P. Meadows; T. Hopson, M. Booth; A. Townsend, M. Nicholls, J. Fowke, B. Hudson, A. Brinn, P. Ford, G. White, D. Smith.

Reserves: R. Fowke, A. Osman.

United meet for a 12.30 train at Central Station before they travel to meet Newport United.

United: M. Tocknell; M. Ashwin, R. Pitt, G. Wright, R. Timms; D. Ainge, G. Mace; J. Herbert, M. Wetson, A. Nield, R. Long, T. Davies, P. Hawker, D. Owen, P. Lane.

Reserves: I. Oakes, E. Stephens, T. Roberts, D. McDougall.