

THE CITIZEN

FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 1964

KINGSHOLM MATCH OFF

A frosty forecast has decided the Gloucester RFC committee to cancel tomorrow's Kingsholm match against Wasps.

The Rev. Mervyn Hughes, chairman of the club said today, "The ground is as hard as iron now and the local met. office promised another heavy frost tonight.

"Because the Wasps have to make an early start from London we thought it better not to delay our decision until tomorrow morning."

JC