

THE CITIZEN

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1964

TOWNSEND LEADS GLO'STER AGAINST ARMY

MACE AND AINGE HALF-BACK PAIRING

Alan Townsend takes over as captain in the Gloucester v. Army game at Kingsholm on Saturday.

In the absence of skipper Alan Holder who is injured, Mike Tocknell takes over at full-back and, as vice-captain scrum-half Mickie Booth is in the county side at Bath, Gary Mace comes in to partner David Ainge at half-back.

Regular premier fly-half, Terry Hopson, is unfit.

Wing forwards Peter Ford and Dick Smith together with hooker Mike Wetson are all in the County team against Dorset and Wilts and are replaced by Hal Symonds, Gary White and Nigel Halls respectively.

Team: M. Tocknell; I. Laurie, R. Pitt, J. Taylor, P. Meadows; D. Ainge, G. Mace; A. Townsend (capt.), N. Halls, J. Fowke, A. Brinn, B. Hudson, H. Symonds, D. Owen, G. White. Res.: J. Herbert.

UNITED LINE-UP

United (v St. Paul's College, Cheltenham, coach 1.45, Kingsholm): P. Hawker; E. Smith, J. Bayliss, D. Walters (Matson), A. Osman; R. Carr (Gloucester Old Boys), M. Griffiths; I. Oakes, K. Taylor, A. Nield, R. Long, R. Bazzi, F. Smith, B. McDougall, P. Lane. Reserves: J. Evans, T. Roberts, M. Nicholls. Reserves not to travel: B. Smith (Sir Thomas Rich's), J. Willcox (B N S).