MEADOWS SCRUM HALF FOR UNITED

With Gary Mace injured and Mike Griffiths returned to local Rugby, Gloucester call on one-time England schoolboy scrum-half Peter Meadows to fill the half-back berth in Gloucester United's game against Bristol United on Saturday, at Kingsholm.

Bristol County players Laurie Watts (centre) and Mike Pegler (prop) add strength to an already strong Bristol United side.

Prop forward, D. Evans, who hails from Malvern, is given a chance to show his paces in the Gloucester United side, accompanied by Ken Taylor at hooker and A. Nield on the other side of the front row.

County threequarter Jim Glover appears at fly-half.
