KEN TAYLOR KEEPS HOOKER'S JOB FOR GLOUCESTER

Ken Taylor has ousted County hooker Mike Wetson from the Gloucester side to meet Swansea at Kingsholm on Saturday (kick-off 3 p.m.).

The Cambridge Blue had to cry off last Friday because he has recently taken up an appointment in Brussels.

OWEN STAYS

Ken Taylor took his place and played an outstanding game, which the Gloucester selectors could not ignore when they sat to pick the strongest possible team to meet a powerful Swansea side.

They had much the same feelings about Dave Owen, who returns to the lock forward position he "borrowed" from Gary White in the absence of wing forward, Peter Ford. White gives way to Ford, returned from international duties and plays in the United.

Team: A. Holder (capt); R. Timms, J. Bayliss, R. Pitt, R. Smith; T. Hopson, M. Booth; A. Townsend, K. Taylor, J. Fowke, B. Hudson, A. Brinn, P. Ford, D. Owen, R. Smith.

Res.: M. Wetson, R. Bassi.

UNITED AT HEREFORD

Jim King, the Dorset and Wilts combined counties wing-threequarter, is dropped from the United side which travels to Hereford by coach at 1.15 p.m.

Team: M. Tocknell; I. Laurie, R. Nield, M. Benfield, A. Osman;
D. Ainge, P. Meadows; A. Nield, N. Halls, M. Hedges, R. Long,
B. McDougal, G. White, P. Hawker (capt.), P. Lane.
Reserves: J. King, I. Oakes.
