

THE CITIZEN

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1, 1964

GLO'STER AT FULL STRENGTH FOR ABERAVON TRIP

Gloucester send their strongest team to Aberavon – hoping to complete the double over the strong Welsh side on Saturday.

The team includes John Bayliss at centre who was married last Saturday and plans his honeymoon trip after the end of the Rugby season.

Team: A. Holder; R. Timms, R. Pitt, J. Bayliss, R. Smith; T. Hopson, M. Booth; A. Townsend, K. Taylor, J. Fowke, R. Long, A. Brinn, P. Ford, G. White, O. Smith.

Reserve: D. Owen. Coach 10.30.

SCHOOLBOY CENTRE IN UNITED XV

United, who meet Bargoed at Kingsholm – kick-off 3.15 – include J. Thompson, a promising 17-year-old Cirencester schoolboy at centre.

United: M. Tocknell; I. Laurie, G. Wright, J. Thompson, A. Osman; D. Ainge, P. Meadows; A. Nield, M. Halls, M. Nicholls, B. Hudson, R. Bassi, P. Hawker, H. Symonds, P. Lane.

Reserves: A. Mead, M. Hedges.