

THE CITIZEN

FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1964

PETER FORD CRIES OFF AGAINST NEWBRIDGE

'FLU VICTIM: HOPSON, BOOTH, PITT ALSO ABSENTEES

Peter Ford, who played in the Bristol match suffering from 'flu last night, has withdrawn from the side to meet Newbridge at Kingsholm tomorrow, kick-off 3.15.

His position at blindside is taken by Garry White and Dave Owen moves up from the United side to White's position at number eight.

Gloucester are still without half-backs Terry Hopson and Mickie Booth, who are nursing recent injuries, and Ron Pitt is still out of the Gloucester centre.

Gloucester: A. Holder (capt.); R. Timms, J. Bayliss, G. Wright, R. Smith; D. Ainge, P. Meadows; J. Fowke, K. Taylor, A. Townsend, A. Brinn, R. Long, G. White, D. Owen, D. Smith.

JC