GLOUCESTER RUGBY RETURN TO AVIVA PREMIERSHIP RUGBY ACTION THIS AFTERNOON AT THE STOOP ON THE CREST OF THE PROVERBIAL WAVE HAVING LIFTED THE LV= CUP LAST WEEKEND FOLLOWING THE 34-7 VICTORY OVER THE NEWCASTLE FALCONS.

It was the club's eleventh win in succession in all competitions, a run of form which seemed unlikely when 2011 kicked off with a disappointing New Year's Day defeat at Headingley against Leeds Carnegie.

However, the team spirit and unity since that setback has been remarkable to behold and clinching and, of course the Holy Grail of Heineken Cup rugby next season, has been a fine effort.

of months have seen the Gloucester squad stretched given the number that always deprive Head Coach Bryan Redpath of numbers at this time of year.

Gloucester Rugby players have taken to the field of play, put their bodies on the line and displayed no little skill to keep the run alive occupying third place in the Aviva Premiership table. Who would have predicted that given the team's slightly shaky start to the season?

Opening day defeat was followed over Leeds and London Wasps but the blue touch paper was really lit with an impressive away win at the Rec against Bath Rugby

Away wins were still tough to come by as evidenced by defeats at Agen, the Dragons and Newcastle but Gloucester always took comfort at returning home to Kingsholm and some notable scalps were taken.

2010 drew to a sombre close as within the space of a week, Chairman Tom Walkinshaw passed away after a long battle with illness and, perhaps still numbed by that shock news, Gloucester slipped up at home to La Cup to all but slip out of Europe.

Defeat at Leeds and the subsequent, expected exit from Europe left Gloucester at a crossroads but they chose their path forwards and haven't looked back.

Wins at Wasps and Northampton Premiership sit up and take notice as Redpath's side steadily climbed the table and the LV= Cup was secured in style as the likes of the Newport Gwent Dragons and Newcastle Falcons were swept aside.

The cup run means that Gloucester have have been working overtime in recent the squad push for a top four finish.

TODAY'S VISITORS

ELIOTA FUIMAONO-SAPOLU

DOB: 31st Oct 1980 Height: 1.83m (6' 0") Position: Centre, Fly Half Birthplace: Apia, Samoa Weight: 103 kg (16st 3lb)

In his second season with the club, Eliota has established himself as one of the pivotal figures in the Gloucester Rugby line up.

The Samoan international centre joined Gloucester Rugby from local rivals Bath Rugby in the summer of 2009 and quickly established himself as a fans' favourite in his first competitive appearance which was against his former club.

There is more to his game than just smashing the ball up the middle. He has an eye for a gap and handling skills which are the envy of many a Premiership player including helping to create and finishing off a sensational try in last weekend's LV= Cup Final.

CHARLIE SHARPLES

The former England U20s winger enters today's game in a rich vein of form with five tries in his past two games and 14 tries in all this season, already bettering his total of 12 in 2010-11.

The former England U20 international was shortlisted for Try of the Season at last season's Guinness Premiership Try of the Season awards and his searing pace has continued to cause problems for opposing defences this season.

A product of the Gloucester Rugby Academy, he has shown his versatility by also turning out at full back and must be pushing hard for a Saxons call up.

LUKE NARRAWAY

27 year old Luke Narraway has enjoyed a season to remember with Gloucester.

Following a disrupted 2009-10 season due to a back surgery, the back row forward has returned to the form which saw him achieve senior England honours.

An England Saxons tourist for the past two summers, he has captained Gloucester with distinction in the absence of Mike Tindall, combining leadership skills with a series of impressive personal performances.

'Naz' had the honour of lifting the LV= Cup trophy last weekend following the 34-7 win over the Newcastle Falcons and will be a key figure as Gloucester press their Aviva Premiership play off claims over the next few weeks.

NICK WOOD

Swindon born Nick Wood has been an unassuming but massively effective presence in Gloucester's front row this season.

Another Saxons tourist on the successful Churchill Cup campaign in the summer of 2010, he has been a rock in the Gloucester scrum and already made more than 20 appearances so far this season.

His consistency has seen him desperately close to full England honours and he was denied a full cap only by illness in South Africa.

His international claims are frequently lauded by the Gloucester Rugby coaching staff and such recognition would be long overdue and well deserved for a man who has made more than 150 appearances for Gloucester.
