

THE CITIZEN

SATURDAY NOVEMBER 28, 1925

FOOTBALL

CANCELLED MATCHES

GLOUCESTER v. LYDNEY

As a result of the frost and snow, the Athletic Ground, Lydney, was found unfit for play this morning, and the Lydney Committee had no alternative but to cancel the match with Gloucester.

Our Lydney correspondent, telephoning this afternoon, says the ground was in good condition, and the cancelling of the match caused great dissatisfaction among the home supporters.