NOTES

Our Visitors to-day who include several Surrey County players are always welcome because of their enthusiastic and enterprising play. The last two games resulted in fairly substantial wins for us but the Old Paulines have registered well merited wins on two occasions in post war years.

We extend our deep sympathy to our Hon. Treasurer. Mr. H. J. Balchin in the sad bereavement he has sustained by the death of his wife.

We wish our Programme Director, Mr. S. F. Taylor a speedy recovery from his sudden illness.

Next Saturday the United XV. receive Cardiff Athletic who should provide an attractive game.

The United are playing good football just now and are deserving of better support at their home matches. The kick-off will be at 3-15.
