NOTES

This Saturday we are hosts to that grand Midland's side, Bedford. We should have liked to have extended a welcome to that grand 'Lion,' Budge Rogers, but that is a pleasure we must defer to some other time, as he has decided after 18 months of continuous Rugby, to have a fortnight off.

Even without their illustrious wing-forward, Bedford, we know, will provide stiff opposition. Our own side, in spite of that set-back at Bristol last week, are, however, now settling down and we can expect to see some of that delightful brand of Rugby which has already, at the time of writing, brought them within striking distance of the 100 points. We are all pleased that Micky Booth has encouraged his team to use the ball and that his policy has paid off. We welcome more of the same vintage.
