OUR VISITORS

From time immemorial, it seems, Gloucester Rugby has had one real "arch enemy"; the club which, through the years, has symbolised the very essence of artistic Welsh rugger – the great, almost legendary, Cardiff club.

The mere thought of the black and blue rugby jersey was sufficient to bring the fans along to Kingsholm. Not only in the expectation of seeing rugger at its best, but also because it was realised that Gloucester needed every supporter available to urge them on against such formidable opponents.

Even today, with the many counter-attractions of the modern age, the visit of Cardiff is the signal for our supporters to make an extra special effort to get along to Kingsholm.

And this afternoon we again welcome our "arch enemy"; our friends from Cardiff, who, as always, will provide one of the highlights of the season at Kingsholm.

Gloucester Schools' Rugby Union

Today a collection will be taken in aid of the Gloucester Schools' Rugby Union, it is hoped that you will give generously and thus help to encourage the young players of our City.

THANK YOU !

Saturday, 4th January, 1964. Kick-off 2-45 p.m.
