NOTES

The Royal Air Force, our visitors today, are always welcome at Kingsholm. Their open style of play ensures a good afternoon's entertainment for our supporters, but for the first time in many years they do not have a Gloucester player in their side.

After a disappointing spell during January, it is pleasing to see that our team has apparently settled down again to its early season form. Following the fine win at Northampton last week, we can be sure Alan Holder and the team will be all out to improve on their record this afternoon.

Our congratulations to Peter Ford on his selection to play for England against Scotland next Saturday ; we wish him every success in this his fourth consecutive International appearance.
