NOTES

Today's match is almost in the nature of a "double welcome"; for not only do we look forward to the annual visit of the popular "Tigers", but also to the return to their own ground of our lads who will be making their first appearance at Kingsholm since that wonderful victory over Harlequins early last month !

Leicester had two hard games last week-end. On Saturday they accounted for Nuneaton by 19 points to 5, then on Sunday they travelled to Ireland, where they were extremely unlucky to lose an exciting game with Old Belvedere in Dublin by 16 pts. to 14.

They will be all out to be the first team to lower Gloucester's colours at Kingsholm this season, and our lads will have to be on top form to retain their ground record.

For the next few weeks Gloucester supporters' interest will be centred round two points – the fortunes of the County in their quest for championship honours after their magnificent win over Devon, and the first England Trial at Weston-super-Mare early next month.

While there is every confidence that both Don Rutherford and Peter Ford are high on the selectors' list of probables this season, it will be no more than justice if Mickie Booth gets his chance . . . and might not we see at least one other Gloucester forward in this first Trial on December 5th ?

CHRISTMAS DRAW. Any Supporter who may be in a position to assist the Club by selling tickets, please contact Mr. A. Beattie at the office.
