OUR VISITORS

There is no doubt that our visitors today provide one of those "dates" at Kingsholm that even the luke-warm rugger fan specially notes in his diary.

We tender a particularly cordial welcome, then, to Coventry, who visit us with the magnificent record of having won 17 of their 21 matches to date, with only three defeats – in away games to Cardiff, Sale and Harlequins.

Indeed, Coventry have now won 11 matches in succession and have scored 441 points while conceding 166 ! This gives an idea of the magnitude of the task facing our lads today ; but they will be all out to erase the memory of that heavy defeat suffered by the sadly weakened Gloucester side at Coventry in October.

Victory for the lads today would indeed be in the nature of a Christmas box for them.

May we all, officials and players, take this opportunity of wishing our supporters a very happy Christmas !
