OUR VISITORS

It is unfortunate that we have to entertain strong opposition such as Moseley, our visitors today, with nine of the lads away on County duties.

Nevertheless, we extend a very cordial welcome to our Midland friends who have given us considerable enjoyment over the years with their style of open and constructive rugger.

Earlier this season the Cherry and Whites beat Moseley at the Reddings to take their unbeaten record – an achievement of which we were justly proud. Our visitors will be anxious to avenge that defeat this afternoon, while our own lads will be equally keen to prove their mettle and repeat the performance.

We can, therefore, look forward to another enjoyable game today.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

Utility player Brian Mace resigned from the club this week to rejoin his former colleagues at Cheltenham. We wish him every success with his new – or should it be, old? – club.

Last season, on September 19th, Gloucester defeated Moseley at Kingsholm by 20 points to nil – but they only crossed the Midlanders' line twice, through Peter Ford and Tony Osman. The other points came from two penalty goals and a conversion by Don Rutherford, and two Terry Hopson dropped goals.

It is perhaps ironic that last Saturday's winning programme should be held by a well-known local cricketer. He was Peter James, the Lydney C.C. skipper and Gloucestershire II off-spin bowler, of Foxhill, Lydney, who won £5 with his programme numbered 638. (Maybe he's put the money towards a new pair of flannels!) We offer congratulations to Peter, who is a regular supporter at Kingsholm!
