OUR VISITORS

This afternoon we welcome the Army rugger men, for whom this match will as usual be in the nature of a reconnaissance prior to the forthcoming Services' Rugby Championship.

Our Army friends insist on open rugger and for this reason will be particularly welcomed by those of our supporters who, because of their employment, are rarely able to see a match at Kingsholm on a Saturday afternoon.

With our lads in excellent form at present – two brilliant away wins to their credit against powerful opposition – this afternoon's game promises to be a thrilling spectacle.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

Last season, on Saturday, January 30th, Gloucester beat the Army in an exciting, high-scoring match by 29 points to 11.

Dick Smith scored three tries, and John Bayliss, Terry Hopson, Ken Taylor and Peter Ford one each, with Don Rutherford making four conversions.

Congratulations to our fixture Secretary, Doug. Dawe, on obtaining Wolfhounds on the Gloucester R.F.C. fixture list again for next season. Those who saw the brilliant exhibition of rugger when the Cherry and Whites met this famous team at Kingsholm last September will have particular cause to be grateful to Doug. for his efforts.

Rumours that the former English International and Cornwall skipper, Roser Hosen, is joining Gloucester are at present unfounded. Hosen, who also skippers the Cornwall county cricket team in the Minor Counties' championship, does not take up his new teaching post in Cheltenham until September and has certainly made no future plans as yet concerning his rugby career.
