OUR VISITORS

A cordial welcome this afternoon to our old friends and "enemies", Leicester, the famous "Tigers" – always one of the season's "special attractions" at Kingsholm. Leicester are having a successful season and recently defeated Cheltenham at the Athletic Ground by 11 points to nil, despite the fact that they were fielding nine reserves. With the "Tigers" back to full strength, then, we look forward to a keen and exciting struggle today.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

Last season, on November 6th, an unconverted try in the corner gave Leicester a narrow victory at Kingsholm by 3 points to nil. Gloucester, however, sprang a surprise in the return game at Welford Road on January 8th. Despite having several players in the County team that met Oxfordshire in the quarter-final, the Cherry and Whites beat the "Tigers" by a similar margin, through an unconverted try from Charlie Hannaford.

Supporters will be pleased to hear that the club have now filled a long-felt want – the provision of facilities for a cup of tea and light refreshments at half-time. These facilities will be available as from today in the new social club at the interval and after the match. Members are asked to note that there will be NO alcoholic drinks served during the match – and that, of course, includes half-time.

By general request, another dance will be held in the new social club this evening, from 8-11-45 p.m. Admission is 3/- for members and 6/- for guests.

In conclusion, hearty congratulations to David Ainge and Nick Foice on their selection for Gloucestershire against Devon at Exeter next Saturday. It will be the first appearance for each of them for the County in a championship match; we sincerely hope they give outstanding performances.
