OUR VISITORS

We tender a very cordial welcome this evening to our friends from Pontypool, with whom we have had so many enjoyable games. Our thanks are due to them, too, for "supplying" us with their skipper of last season, Jim Jarrett — Pontypool's loss is certainly Gloucester's gain !

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

Last season's match at Kingsholm with Pontypool was played on Tuesday, December 27th.

The result was a draw of 3 points each, Pontypool scored the only try of the match and missed the easy conversion attempt. David Ainge dropped a splendid goal from 40 yards for Gloucester.

The usual "fivers" are being given away again at each home match to the holders of the lucky programme. The first winner of the season was Tony Lewis, of 26 Wilton Road, Gloucester, who bought the programme No. 216 at the Lydney match last Saturday.

Supporters are reminded that tickets for membership of the Gloucester R.F.C. Social Club are now ready and may be obtained from the social secretary, Mervyn Elway, or any of his committee. A single ticket is 10/- for the year, and a double, husband and wife, 15/-. But if you are a member of the Gloucester Rugby Club, then Social Club membership fees drop to 5/- (single), 10/- (double).

Terry Tandy, the club secretary, is receiving numerous calls at his office. Will anyone who wishes to speak to him on rugby matters please telephone his home (Gloucester 23049).
