OUR VISITORS

This evening we extend a hearty welcome to our good friends and neighbours, Cheltenham, whom we meet three times this season with the introduction of the new "Midlands Floodlight Alliance." We look forward to a keen and enjoyable game in this, the first of our encounters with the 'Town'.

Supporters will view this evening's local derby with more than usual interest, for it is doubtful if any of them will need the "painful" reminder that the 'Town' completed the double over Gloucester – the first time this catastrophe, from Gloucester's viewpoint, had ever occurred, as far as can be ascertained. More than that; Cheltenham "rubbed it in" by two decisive victories, after winning by 14 points to 5 at the Athletic Ground in September they visited Kingsholm and again beat Gloucester, this time by 14 points to 3. It was the evening of Monday, April 1st, that the 'Town' won at Kingsholm, with John Berry and Bernard Capaldi scoring their tries, and Mike Crook making one conversion and landing two penalty goals. Roy Morris scored Gloucester's consolation try.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

By popular demand the Social Club will be open for an experimental period during October on Sunday evenings for members. This is a completely new venture and as so many have requested this step it is hoped they will give it their full support. Plans are afoot to provide entertainment and it is felt that the Social Club is an ideal spot to take wives, lady friends and one's pals on a Sunday evening. If the venture is supported then, of course, Sunday evening at the Social Club will become a regular week-end feature. It's up to you!

Members are also reminded of the new "200 Club" competition. Details may be obtained from secretary Terry Tandy, treasurer Doug Wadley, or any member of the committee.

The Social Club committee are planning to run a coach to the Memorial Ground on Saturday, September 28th, 1968, for Gloucester's away match with Bristol. Your support, is necessary and details will be gladly given by Jim Holder.
